

My Home Life

Supporting good end of life

'Death is such a taboo subject. By 90 you can't get much nearer without knowing that it is around the corner. We need to be able to express that sometimes if we want.'

Our aims are:

- Valuing living and dying
- Promoting a 'good death' through palliative care
- Offering support to staff and residents in order to 'say goodbye'

www.myhomelife.org.uk

CITY UNIVERSITY
LONDON

HELP THE AGED WE WILL[®]