

Intergenerational Linking Book List

	This bright picture book describes the love between a young girl and her grandad. Touching on the concept of dying and loss, this book is full of poetic and ultimately uplifting words. We especially like, 'If all the world were stories, I could make my grandad better just by listening, listening, listening to every tale he has to tell.'
If all the world were by Joseph Coelho & Allison Colpoys. Publisher: Frances Lincoln Publishers Ltd ISBN: 9781786036513
	This lovingly crafted picture book tells the story of when a young girl visits her great-grandfather. Whilst exploring his house, she finds a cigar box full of small matchboxes. Inside each one is an item which evokes a powerful memory for the man. Through dialogue and exquisite images, we discover more about the old man's story of immigration and the beautiful relationship between generations.
The Matchbox Diary by Paul Fleischman & Bagram Ibatoulline. Publisher: Candlewick ISBN 9780763676384
	'Grandpa Green wasn't always a gardener. He was once a boy who lived on a farm, and a child with chickenpox. He was a soldier, a husband, and most of all, an artist. Follow Grandpa Green's great-grandson through a garden where memories are handed down in the fanciful shapes of topiary trees, and imagination recreates things forgotten.'
Grandpa Green by Lane Smith. Publisher: Roaring Brook Press ISBN: 9781596436077
	This sensitive picture book is a beautiful way of helping children come to terms with the loss of a loved one. Although initially grief-stricken by the death of their friend Badger, the animals gradually learn to remember the special things

Badger's Parting Gifts by Susan Varley. Publisher: Anderson Press ISBN: 1849395144	he taught them and by doing so, discover that Badger can live on in all of them.
 My Two Grannies Floella Benjamin Illustrated by Margaret Chamberlain	Alvina has two very different grannies who like very different things! Exploring identify, different cultures and how we can all live together, this is a fun and colourful book to be enjoyed by young children.
My Two Grannies by Floella Benjamin & Margaret Chamberlain. Publisher: Frances Lincoln ISBN: 9781847800343
 My Two Grandads Floella Benjamin Illustrated by Margaret Chamberlain	The perfect follow-up to 'My Two Grannies', this book tells the story of Aston, who has two very different grandads. Grandad Harry is from Lancashire and plays the trumpet in a brass band; Grandad Roy is from Trinidad and plays the steel drum in a steel band. Together they explore music and culture.
My Two Grandads by Floella Benjamin & Margaret Chamberlain. Publisher: Frances Lincoln. ISBN: 9780711240919
 wrinkles JR	A unique and thought-provoking book by artist JR. The photos used in the book were taken as part of a project called 'The Wrinkles in the City' and invite the reader to find out more about the 'stories behind the wrinkles'.
Wrinkles by JR. Publisher: Phaidon ISBN: 9781838660161

	A light-hearted story about the exquisite bond between a young boy and his Grandpa who has developed Alzheimer's. Spitfires, adventures and humour make this book a great read for Key Stage 2. Be aware of the somewhat negative portrayal of Grandpa's care home however if reading alongside intergenerational linking.
Grandpa's Great Escape by David Walliams & Tony Ross. Publisher: Harper Collins ISBN: 9780008183424
	Set against the backdrop of World War 2, this moving book tells the story of young Willie, who is evacuated to the country to live with an old widower, Tom Oakley. Although there are difficulties along the way, the two develop a strong, mutual bond in their new life together. A truly heart-warming story for Upper Key Stage 2.
Goodnight Mister Tom by Michelle Magorian. Publisher: Puffin ISBN: 978014135484	