

Supporting your team leaders to lead more effectively

‘Leading Well’ for Aspiring Managers and New Team Leaders is a 4 month programme from My Home Life England that specifically supports the professional development of aspiring managers and new team leaders, empowering them to develop enabling cultures within their settings, whilst delivering great care and support.

Programme outline:

- 1 full day face-to-face workshop
- A unique offer of 4 virtual group coaching sessions (action learning sets) over a 4-month period, with access to a mentor/coach and a network of fellow learners.
 - The group will work together to embed learning, explore new ideas, share challenges and celebrate successes.
- Cost: £680+VAT per attendee
- Size: Up to 10 participants

Outcomes:

- Meeting CQC ‘Well Led’ standards
- Managing workplace relationships
- Facilitating effective staff meetings
- Providing empowering supervisions
- Improved professional confidence
- Improved positive collaboration with partners, stakeholders and the wider community

→ Contact us for more info & dates

My home life
England

In a recent programme evaluation, 96% of care leaders said they increased the quality of their management and leadership.

My Home Life England is part of City St George's, University of London. We've worked alongside the social care sector for 18 years, supporting more than 2,600 care leaders with proven outcomes on leadership, quality, resilience and retention.
Visit: myhomelife.org.uk